

The Xan Lopez Annual In-Service
The Connecticut Supervisors of School Psychologists in Cooperation with ConnCASE present

Friday, December 9, 2011
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
ITBD Center - New Britain, CT
<http://web.ccsu.edu/itbd/directions/default.htm>

*How to go About Setting a Single-Case Design
When Addressing Behavior Problems in the Schools*

Gary L. Cates, Ph.D.

Dr. Gary Cates Associate Professor of Psychology at Illinois State University. Currently teaching undergraduate psychology courses and graduate courses in NASP, NCATE, and APA approved school psychology programs. Currently coordinator of the Academic Intervention and Consultation Service through the Psychological Services Clinic at Illinois State University. Research Interests include prevention and remediation of academic skills deficits, evaluation of academic interventions, applied behavior analysis in educational settings, and data-based decision making related to progress monitoring.

The intended audience is school psychologists and their supervisors.
NASP-approved (.5) CPDs for this event will be awarded

Cost: $75.00/person (includes breakfast, lunch, session materials and parking)

REGISTRATION FORM

Due by: December 2, 2011

info@conncase.org / fax: 860.541.6484

(please use another sheet for multiple attendees; no cancellations or refunds will be given)

Name: _____

School: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ Zip: _____

Email: _____

Total Payment: $ _____